Another Victory at the Golf Links.—The St. Johnsbury Boys Defeated in Base Ball.

The St. Francis Club of Sherbrooke cancelled their golf game scheduled for last Saturday and Capt. C. H. Turner arranged a match with the Abnaki Club of Lyndonville. There were seven pairs in the match and the home club won by a score of 26 to 1. Following is the summary of the match:

OLD PINE	ABNAKI
C. H. Turner 0	Howard Ford 1
E. M. Taft 0	E. A. Carpenter 0
G. A. Bailey 2	G. F. Ferguson 0
R. A. Pearl 5	C. L. Stewart 0
P. H. Brooks 4	A. D. Paige 0
A. G. Strydom 6	Lincoln Wilson 0
H. F. Balch 1	Mr. Johnson 0
Total 26	1

The Old Pine team play the Barre club on the morning of July 4 and the Country Club of Montpelier in the afternoon. Next Saturday afternoon the Montpelier team comes over here to play the return match. The hostesses will be Mrs. C. B. Weeks, Mrs. Raymond Hall and Miss Elisabeth Merrill.

Barton defeated the local team Saturday in one of the closest and best played games seen here in a long time, by the score of 8 to 7. "Hydie" Laird was in the box for St. Johnsbury, and pitched in fine style, keeping the hits scattered and had it not been for the ragged support in the ninth he would have had another victory to his credit. Barton used three slab artists during the game. Webster lasted three innings and was replaced by Jenness who got his ticket to the woods after four innings. Bishop finished the game and proved a puzzle. Carr kept up his record as a stick artist getting a two-bagger and a single. Peck and Richards also clouted the sphere some, each putting out a two-bagger. Barrows and Shina excelled for Barton at the bat.

The umpiring of Tinker deserves especial mention, being alone worth the price of admission.

The score by innings:

Barton	1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9
St. Johnsbury	0 0 0 1 1 1 1 1 3-8
	0 2 0 0 0 4 0 1-6

Base ball enthusiasts were treated to a fine exhibition of the national game on the campus Saturday afternoon when Chief Howard and his people from Hose Companies No. 4 and 6, lined up for a battle that was destined to live long in history and to the fame, individually and collectively, of the valiant fire ladders. It was a bitter struggle from the first as the rivalry between the two teams was of long standing and everything hinged on the outcome of this contest. No. 4 fought hard throughout, but it was evident from the first that they were booked for ignominious defeat at the hands of their brother fire-fighters from across the bridge. Lynch of No. 6 gave a remarkable exhibition of slab work and the whole team played in fine form, there being a number of sensational plays in the field, including a few gymnastic stunts by Connolly, the light weight of the aggregation, that added not a little to the general amusement. The final score was 16 to 1 in favor of No. 6.

The Littletons play the St. Johnsbury ball nine Thursday morning on the campus at 10.30 o'clock. The visiting team are hard hitters and a good game is anticipated. Better enjoy part of your holiday by seeing the ball game.

Care of Cemetery Lots.

The trustees of the St. Johnsbury Cemetery Association have sent the CALEDONIAN the following letter for publication:

It has come to the notice of the trustees of St. Johnsbury Cemetery Association that the condition of many of the lots in the cemetery was far from being satisfactory and in view of this they have appointed a special committee, consisting of George H. Cross and Harry M. Nelson, whose duty it shall be to carry out a thorough investigation of this condition and to take such action as may seem necessary or expedient to bring about the best results.

The members of this special committee have been giving the work their strict attention for some time and have found that a great many of the lots have been practically abandoned, no thought has been given them by the living and no fund having been provided for their proper care.

As a result of this investigation, the committee have been impressed with the fact that nothing short of a perpetual endowment was adequate in arranging for the care of such lots; that while the second and possibly the third generations might have sufficient regard for the memory of the dead to see that their resting places were cared for, the generations beyond would, as a rule, not consider the matter.

In view of this a circular letter has been sent to the owners of every lot urging those who have not done so to endow their lots now during their lifetime so that their friends and heirs will be assured that their lots will be properly kept up for all time to come.

They have also looked up the relatives or friends of those whose graves show signs of neglect, asking them to endow these lots, adding to the permanent fund, the proceeds from which would insure special care in the future.

A large number have wisely responded to the letters saying that since the subject had been brought to their attention they had begun to see the necessity of such action and had now decided to endow their lots by sums, ranging from $50.00 to $500.00.

June Weddings.

Cross-Hooker.

A very pretty wedding took place last Wednesday at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Hooker on Portland street, when their daughter, Miss Nettie, was united in marriage to Kenneth R. Cross of Barton. Only the immediate relatives and friends were present, the ceremony being performed by Rev. J. M. Frost. To the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march, played by Miss Grace Jones of Stoneham, Mass., the bridal party entered the parlor, the bride leaning on the arm of her father. The bridesmaid was Miss Julian Hooker, a sister of the bride who was dressed in a lavender dress of nun's veiling. The bride's dress was a white nun's veiling over white tulle and she carried bride's roses. Her only ornament was a gold locket and chain, the gift of the groom. The best man was G. Maurice Hooker, a brother of the bride. The arch under which the ceremony was performed was of daisies and evergreen and the window was backed with ferns. After the ceremony refreshments were served in the dining room, which was also in green and white, by Miss Mary Knights and Miss Susie McLaughlin, with S. D. Atwood caterer. Punch was served by Paul Lynch. Mr. and Mrs. Cross left for a short trip through the White Mountains and the last of the week leave for their new home in Boston. The wedding gifts included china, silver, linen, cut glass and crockery, all showing the esteem in which the young couple are held.

Those from out of town to attend the wedding were: Frank B. Hooker, Boston; Miss Mary Brock, Barnet; Misses Susie Greenbank, Ethel Bagby, Danville, D. V. Cross, Concord.

Holmes-Ling.

A quiet wedding took place at St. Aloysius church, Wednesday morning at 8 o'clock when Floyd J. Holmes was united in marriage to Miss Mary Agnes Ling, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Ling. Although no invitations were issued the church was filled with friends and relatives. The bridal party entered the church to Lohengrin's wedding march, where the ceremony was performed by Rev. T. J. Leonard. The bride, who was becomingly dressed in a brown traveling suit with hat to match, was attended by her sister, Miss Margaret Ling, who was dressed in white muslin and carried carnations. The groom was attended by John Hale of Barre, a cousin of the bride. The bride's gift to her bridesmaid was a necklace and the groom's gift to his best man was a scarf pin. The gifts included cut glass, silver, china and linen.

Mr. and Mrs. Holmes have for some time been popular clerks in the store of Lougee & Smythe, and Mr. Holmes has formerly been interested in dress making parlors in this town. Both have many friends who extend congratulations.

Those from out of town to attend the wedding were John Hale and Miss Katherine Hale of Barre. Mr. and Mrs. Holmes left on a short wedding trip, after which they will return and keep house at 4 North Pearl street.

McGladin-Lewis.

A pretty, though quiet wedding took place at "the Elderage," 23 Summer street, last evening, when Miss A. E. Lewis and E. S. McGladin of Northfield were united in marriage by Rev. F. W. Lewis, presiding elder of St. Johnsbury district. The color scheme in the room where the ceremony was performed was green and white, being carried out in ferns and daisies. The dining room, where Miss Brooks served refreshments, had a profusion of mountain laurel and ferns for decorations.

Phipps-Lee.

The marriage of Francis W. Phipps and Mrs. Jennie Lee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Stanley, took place at the home of the bride's parents last Wednesday evening. The bride entered the room on the arm of her father, and the ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. S. G. Barnes. Following the ceremony refreshments were served to the friends who were present. Congratulations are extended to Mr. and Mrs. Phipps, who will make their home here.

County Court.

Leclair of Sutton, the plaintiff appeared Saturday morning and pleaded guilty to uttering forged paper in negotiating a note of $145 at the Lyndonville National Bank last November. He was sentenced to hard labor at the state prison for not less than one year and 10 months and not more than two years.

By agreement the case of Charles E. Kirk vs. Austin I. Morrill was placed in the court calendar, and the hearing was begun yesterday morning and will probably continue through today. The plaintiff brings suit for $5000 for alleged assault and battery by the defendant at the plaintiff's stable last winter. Harland B. Howe is the plaintiff's attorney and the defendant is represented by Dunnett & Slack. Mr. Kirk was on the stand in the morning describing the event and in the afternoon several St. Johnsbury physicians and a Montreal specialist testified as to the nature of Mr. Kirk's injuries.

Fishing in Joe's Pond.

In a short time fishing will be extra good in Joe's Pond for pines have been taken in the last three years to stock the pond with good game fish. Three years ago a large consignment of steel head trout were placed in the pond. A year later several thousand more of the same fish were put in and last year 2000 black bass were put in the pond. Last Thursday R. C. Sulloway placed 11,500 steel head trout in the pond and 2500 black bass were put in by Joseph Fairbanks. Fever perch have been caught this year than usual and many think that the pond is being gradually rid of these fish. Some good catches of pickerel have been made and some good sized bass have been caught while occasionally a steel head trout that has grown to lawful size has been captured.

Kendall of this place, will be interested to know that she and her husband, Dr. Chandler, were pleasantly surprised Friday evening by about 150 friends, on the occasion of their 10th wedding anniversary. On their return from an automobile ride they found the house occupied by this large number of friends. Although taken altogether by surprise the Doctor and Mrs. Chandler entered fully into the spirit of the occasion. The company, apparently thinking that the conventional tin warts of the couple were supplied, presented them a handsome buffet and Battenburg cover, a beautiful six-piece silver service and seven pieces of china. The presentation was made by S. D. Allen, and Dr. Chandler responded in a fitting manner. At the conclusion of the presentation refreshments of sandwiches, cake, ice cream and coffee were served, after which the company broke up, leaving Dr. and Mrs. Chandler to recover from their surprise. A pretty souvenir of the occasion was a name book designed to receive the names of those present.

E. A. Carpenter is now in jail awaiting action in his case at the county court. Mr. Carpenter resides in Lyndonville and came down Monday to negotiate a note of $200 at the Merchants Bank.

The officials had been warned of his coming and it happened that when he entered the bank State's Attorney Hill was discussing his case with Cashier Ruitter. Mr. Carpenter presented the note signed jointly by himself and three others. He declared the signatures were all genuine, but the bank officials were somewhat skeptical and suggested that the state's attorney accompany him to Lyndonville to verify his statement. They had started but a short distance on their journey when Mr. Carpenter confessed he had forged the three names and he was arrested and information filed against him in court yesterday morning for uttering forged paper.
